

PARIS PHOTO ANNOUNCES ITS EXHIBITOR LIST
FOR THE MAIN GALLERIES, BOOK, PRISMES, & CURIOSA SECTORS
FROM 7 TO 10 NOVEMBER AT THE GRAND PALAIS

Paris, July 15, 2019 - For its 23rd edition, Paris Photo, the largest international art fair dedicated to the photographic medium, announces 209 exhibitors for the Main Galleries, Book, PRISMES, & Curiosa Sectors. 179 galleries and 33 art book dealers from 30 countries present the best in photography and image-based art from November 7 to 10, 2019 at the historic Grand Palais in Paris.

Paris Photo welcomes 35 new galleries in the main sector, of which 15 first-time exhibitors: Hauser & Wirth (Zurich) presents a solo show by the German artist August Sander and Dirimart (Istanbul) exhibits a group show of portrait work featuring Nuri Bilge Ceylan, Isaac Julien, Shirin Neshat, and Julien Rosefeldt. Solo shows are proposed by galleries including Galería Elvira González (Madrid) with Spanish artist Chema Madoz and Dali protégé Steven Arnold presented by Fahey/Klein Gallery (Los Angeles). Galleries Anne-Sarah Bénichou (Paris) and The Pill (Istanbul) co-present politically themed works by Mathias Depardon, Decebal Scriba and Seton Smith.

Among the new exhibitors this year, many galleries are returning including: Air de Paris (Paris) who will return with a duo show by Jean Painlevé and Bruno Serralongue, Dominique Fiat (Paris) with a group show on New York's 1990s voguing scene, Filomena Soares (Lisbon) and Nicholas Metivier (Toronto).

29 solo shows are presented this year in the main sector: Jim Goldberg's teenage runaways (Casemore Kirkeby, San Francisco), experiments in digital imagery by Adrian Sauer (Klemm's, Berlin) and Nancy Burson (Paci, Brescia), nature and the environment as a source of inspiration with Roberto Huracaya (Rolf Art, Buenos Aires) and Edward Burtynsky (Nicholas Metivier, Toronto) and a project by Juergen Teller (Suzanne Tarasieve, Paris) exploring fashion and Paris. In addition, Ming Smith (Jenkins Johnson, San Francisco) questions the idea of homogeneity in the photography of Black America, Mari Katayama (Sage, Paris) works that sublimate her physical disability and place her body at the heart of her creative process and the American sculptor John Chamberlain (Karsten Greve, Paris) reveals experimental work using the Widelix camera with a series of stretched, wrinkled and highly contrasted images.

The PRISMES sector is dedicated to the presentation of exceptional projects from large formats and series to installations. For this 5th edition, 14 projects are presented in the Salon d'Honneur of the Grand Palais, among which the large format works of Marie Cloquet (Annie Gentils, Antwerp) and Zohra Opoku (Mariane Ibrahim, Seattle), series by Susan Derges (Purdy Hicks, London) and the SubREAL group (Jecza, Timisoara) as well as installations by Marianne Csáky (Inda, Budapest).

The Curiosa sector, inaugurated in 2018, is dedicated this year to emerging artists. Curated by Osei Bonsu (British-Ghanaian curator and writer), this year's theme addresses photography and its increasingly unstable relationship with the world today. The selection will illuminate the multiple realities of human experience, seen and unseen in thoughtful and innovative ways.

Presented in the mk2 Grand Palais cinema, and freely accessible to all Paris Photo visitors, the 3rd edition of the FILM sector presents an exploration of the intimate and diverse relationship between photography and moving image with a series of films by artists and photographers spanning genres including documentary, fiction and digital manipulation of the image. The sector is curated by Matthieu Orléan (artistic advisor, Cinémathèque française) and Pascale Cassagnau (Head of Audiovisual collections and new media, Centre national des arts plastiques (French Ministry of Culture)). The screening programme will be announced in September.
